Weekly Dose Shortforms used at the Beginning of a Word

RULE 10.9.3 Use any of the ten shortforms below not on the shortform list; braille, great, children, within a longer word, provided the word is "standing alone" (including any affix with an apostrophe) and that any restrictions for the shortform are met.

Time to take a closer look at the remaining 7 shortforms from the list of 10 and decide how they are to be used correctly.

RULE Use the shortforms; blind, first, friend, good, little, letter and quick, if it begins the word and is not followed by a vowel or "y".
