

“Working on teacher assigned worksheet in science class for a student, how would you recommend transcribing when all the beginning words are in italics, it this important?”

Answer: It depends, ignore entry word font attributes when all entry words are emphasized. But... Use emphasis only for entry words requiring distinction, e.g. book titles, foreign terms, etc. (Source: Section 21.2.2)

- “Action archaeology,” 302
- Action theory of development of states, 313, 316
- Adapis,* 130
- Adaptation, 50, 52, 55

Another commonly asked question, cross-references and how to format.

21.2.4 Cross-References (“See” or “See also”)

- a. Follow print for placement.
- b. Retain font attributes.

Example 21.5: Cross-References

Russia, 254-55. See also Soviet Union
See also Early Middle Ages

Source: Braille formats: Principal of Print-to-Braille: Section 21